It is supposed that Mrs. Toney was thrown against the engine and received her fatal injuries. She died at 2:10 this afternoon, never regaining consciousness.

Mrs. Toney and Mr. Toney were brought to Johnston on the same train that caused the accident and were carried to the home of Mr. C. F Pechman, where four physicians gave every attention possible.

Mrs. Toney was the widow of the late Mark Toney and leaves six children to mourn her untimely death: ney, Mr. Spann Toney, Mark Toney, and Mrs. Ham Kirkland of clar. Mrs. Toney was a lady esteemed in the community for her high Christian character and intellectual capacities and her sudden and tragic death cast a gloom over the entire community. DEATH OF MRS T. C. SHEALY.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, Yea saith the spirit they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

On last Monday a. m. just as the sun was beginning to make its course across the heavens, the spirit of Mrs.
T. C. Shealy took its flight and was wasted to the God who gave it.

Mrs. Shealy bad been sick for several weeks, but none of the family thought that the death angel was so near. She was first afflicted with favel, which developed into great nois. All that the devoted husband and kind friends could do failed to stay the disease.

WOMAN'S WORK FINE FEATURE.

SPACE ALLOTTED TO DEPART -MENT PROMISES TO BE WELL FILLED WITH EXHIBITS.

The woman's work department of the Georgia-Carolina fair promises to be one of the gritest features among the exhibits. The committee in charge, consisting of Mr. E. C. Denton chairman, Messrs. T. I. Hickman, E. S. Johnson and Dr. Sparks W. Melton are working in co- peration to make the exhibit one of the most attractve of all displays as the fair

Mr. Denton his secured art work frem leading novelty houses of the country to be placed on exhibition simply as an educative feature and not to enter for the prizes. In addition to these there are many requests coming in every day for more information and the prospects are that the entries will be large and num nous in every part.

Mrs. Vaiden, in charge of the art department of the J. B. White Co. will give free demonstrations during the fair, showing the latest stitches and other are work matters that will be of great interest to the fadies visiting the fair.

All ladications now point to the fact that the department allotted to woman's work will be well filled with the most exquisite productions in fine art and needle work, while the home department will be replete with the finest jellies, preserves, cakes, pies, biscults and bread.
All who enter their exhibits at the
